Many Thanks

Dear Great Alaska Sportsman Show Attendees,

On behalf of our entire team, we want to extend our deepest gratitude to each of you for making this year's Great Alaska Sportsman Show a success. Your presence, enthusiasm, and unwavering support mean more to us than words can fully express.

This year marks an exciting new chapter for the show under new management, and we couldn't be more honored to carry forward this beloved Alaska tradition. We recognize the rich legacy of this event and the important role it has played in our state's outdoor community for so many years. As we take the helm, we do so with tremendous respect for what came before and an ambitious vision for what lies ahead.

The Great Alaska Sportsman Show is back where it belongs at the Sullivan Arena in Anchorage—and show managers have plans to improve the show for years to come. Photos by Melissa Norris/Fish Alaska magazine.

Thank you for believing in us and in the future of this show. Thank you for being part of the Alaska outdoor community that makes events like this possible. And thank you for helping us write the next great chapter in the story of the Great Alaska Sportsman Show.

We look forward to seeing you again next year as we continue this exciting journey together.

With sincere appreciation,
The Great Alaska Sportsman Show Team

Your support during this transition period has been nothing short of extraordinary. We understand that change can bring uncertainty, but your willingness to join us, trust us, and invest your time in this year's event has given us the encouragement and motivation we need to pursue our goals with confidence.

Over the next couple of years, we are committed to rebuilding and revitalizing the Great Alaska Sportsman Show to rival the excellence of its prime. We have big plans for enhanced exhibits, more diverse vendors, engaging seminars, and experiences that celebrate Alaska's unparalleled sporting heritage. But we cannot do this without you. Your attendance, your feedback, and your continued participation are the foundation upon which we will build something truly special.
