VIRGINIA CHAMLEE

Hunting for Hidden Gems: Virginia Chamlee
Brings 'Big Thrift Energy' to Salt Lake

AUDIENCES CAN EXPECT AN ENERGENIC AND INSPIRING PRESENTATION

packed with tips, tricks, and a touch of her signature wit. The celebrated artist, writer, and best-selling author of Big Thrift Energy will be sharing her secrets on "How to Thrift Museum-Quality Art, Designer Furniture, and More" during three must-see sessions on the Garden Stage at the Salt Lake Home + Garden Show:

- Friday, March 7, at 4 p.m.
- Saturday, March 8, at 5 pm.
- Sunday, March 9, at 2 p.m.

Chamlee's unique approach to design and thrifting has earned her fans across the country. Her original artwork and prints have graced high-end residential and commercial projects—including the green room at Jimmy Kimmel Live!—and are available through Anthropologie, Chairish, and Artfully Walls. But her true passion lies in teaching others how to find beauty and value in unexpected places.

Part resource, part inspiration, Big Thrift Energy is a treasure trove of advice for both seasoned thrifters and curious beginners. In it, Chamlee shares her expertise on everything from spotting quality pieces to styling vintage finds and even flipping items for a profit. And for Chamlee, the thrill of the hunt is just as important as the outcome. "Thrifting isn't just about finding beautiful things," she explains. "It's about telling a story and creating a home that reflects your personality."

We caught up with Chamlee ahead of her Salt Lake visit to learn more about her design philosophy, her best thrifting tips, and her life as an artist and writer. Here's what she had to say:

Q: What tool should every homeowner own?

Virginia: A tape measure! I have one in every room of my home and one on my keychain (so I can ensure it's with me at all times).

Q: Wallpaper: love or hate?

Virginia: I personally love wallpaper because it can make a huge impact in a small space (like a powder room) or completely change the vibe of a larger bedroom. Plus, if you get tired of it, it can be removed fairly easily.

Q: Best décor or home improvement app folks don't know about?

Virginia: Substack! While it isn't specifically a home decor app, it's a social media platform that hosts hundreds of incredible newsletters—including many by home decor experts, including myself. Mine is called What's Left and it comes out every Thursday and Sunday. I have city shopping guides, roundups of my latest thrift finds, and interviews with other experts.

Q: Best home purchase for under $100?

Virginia: I have smart lights in every room of my home and love that they can be set to timers and easily change the ambiance of a space.

Q: Tell us about your pets.

Virginia: My dog, Holly, is some sort of hound-boxer mix. She is lanky and energetic and incredibly sweet. She's my best find ever, a rescue who was born near the holidays.

Q: What's your favorite paint color?

Virginia: Benjamin Moore, Soft Satin.

Q: Favorite room in your home?

Virginia: I love my kitchen. I cook all the time, and I designed it so it would be spacious and have storage space for all my gadgets.

Q: Any furniture thrifting tips?

Virginia: Go as often as you can, look for maker's marks to determine how well-made a piece is, and don't buy something that's broken (you will never fix it).

Q: What's your favorite part about speaking at a home show?

Virginia: I love getting to visit and explore new places (this is my first time in Salt Lake!) and connect with other people who love home design and thrifting as much as me.

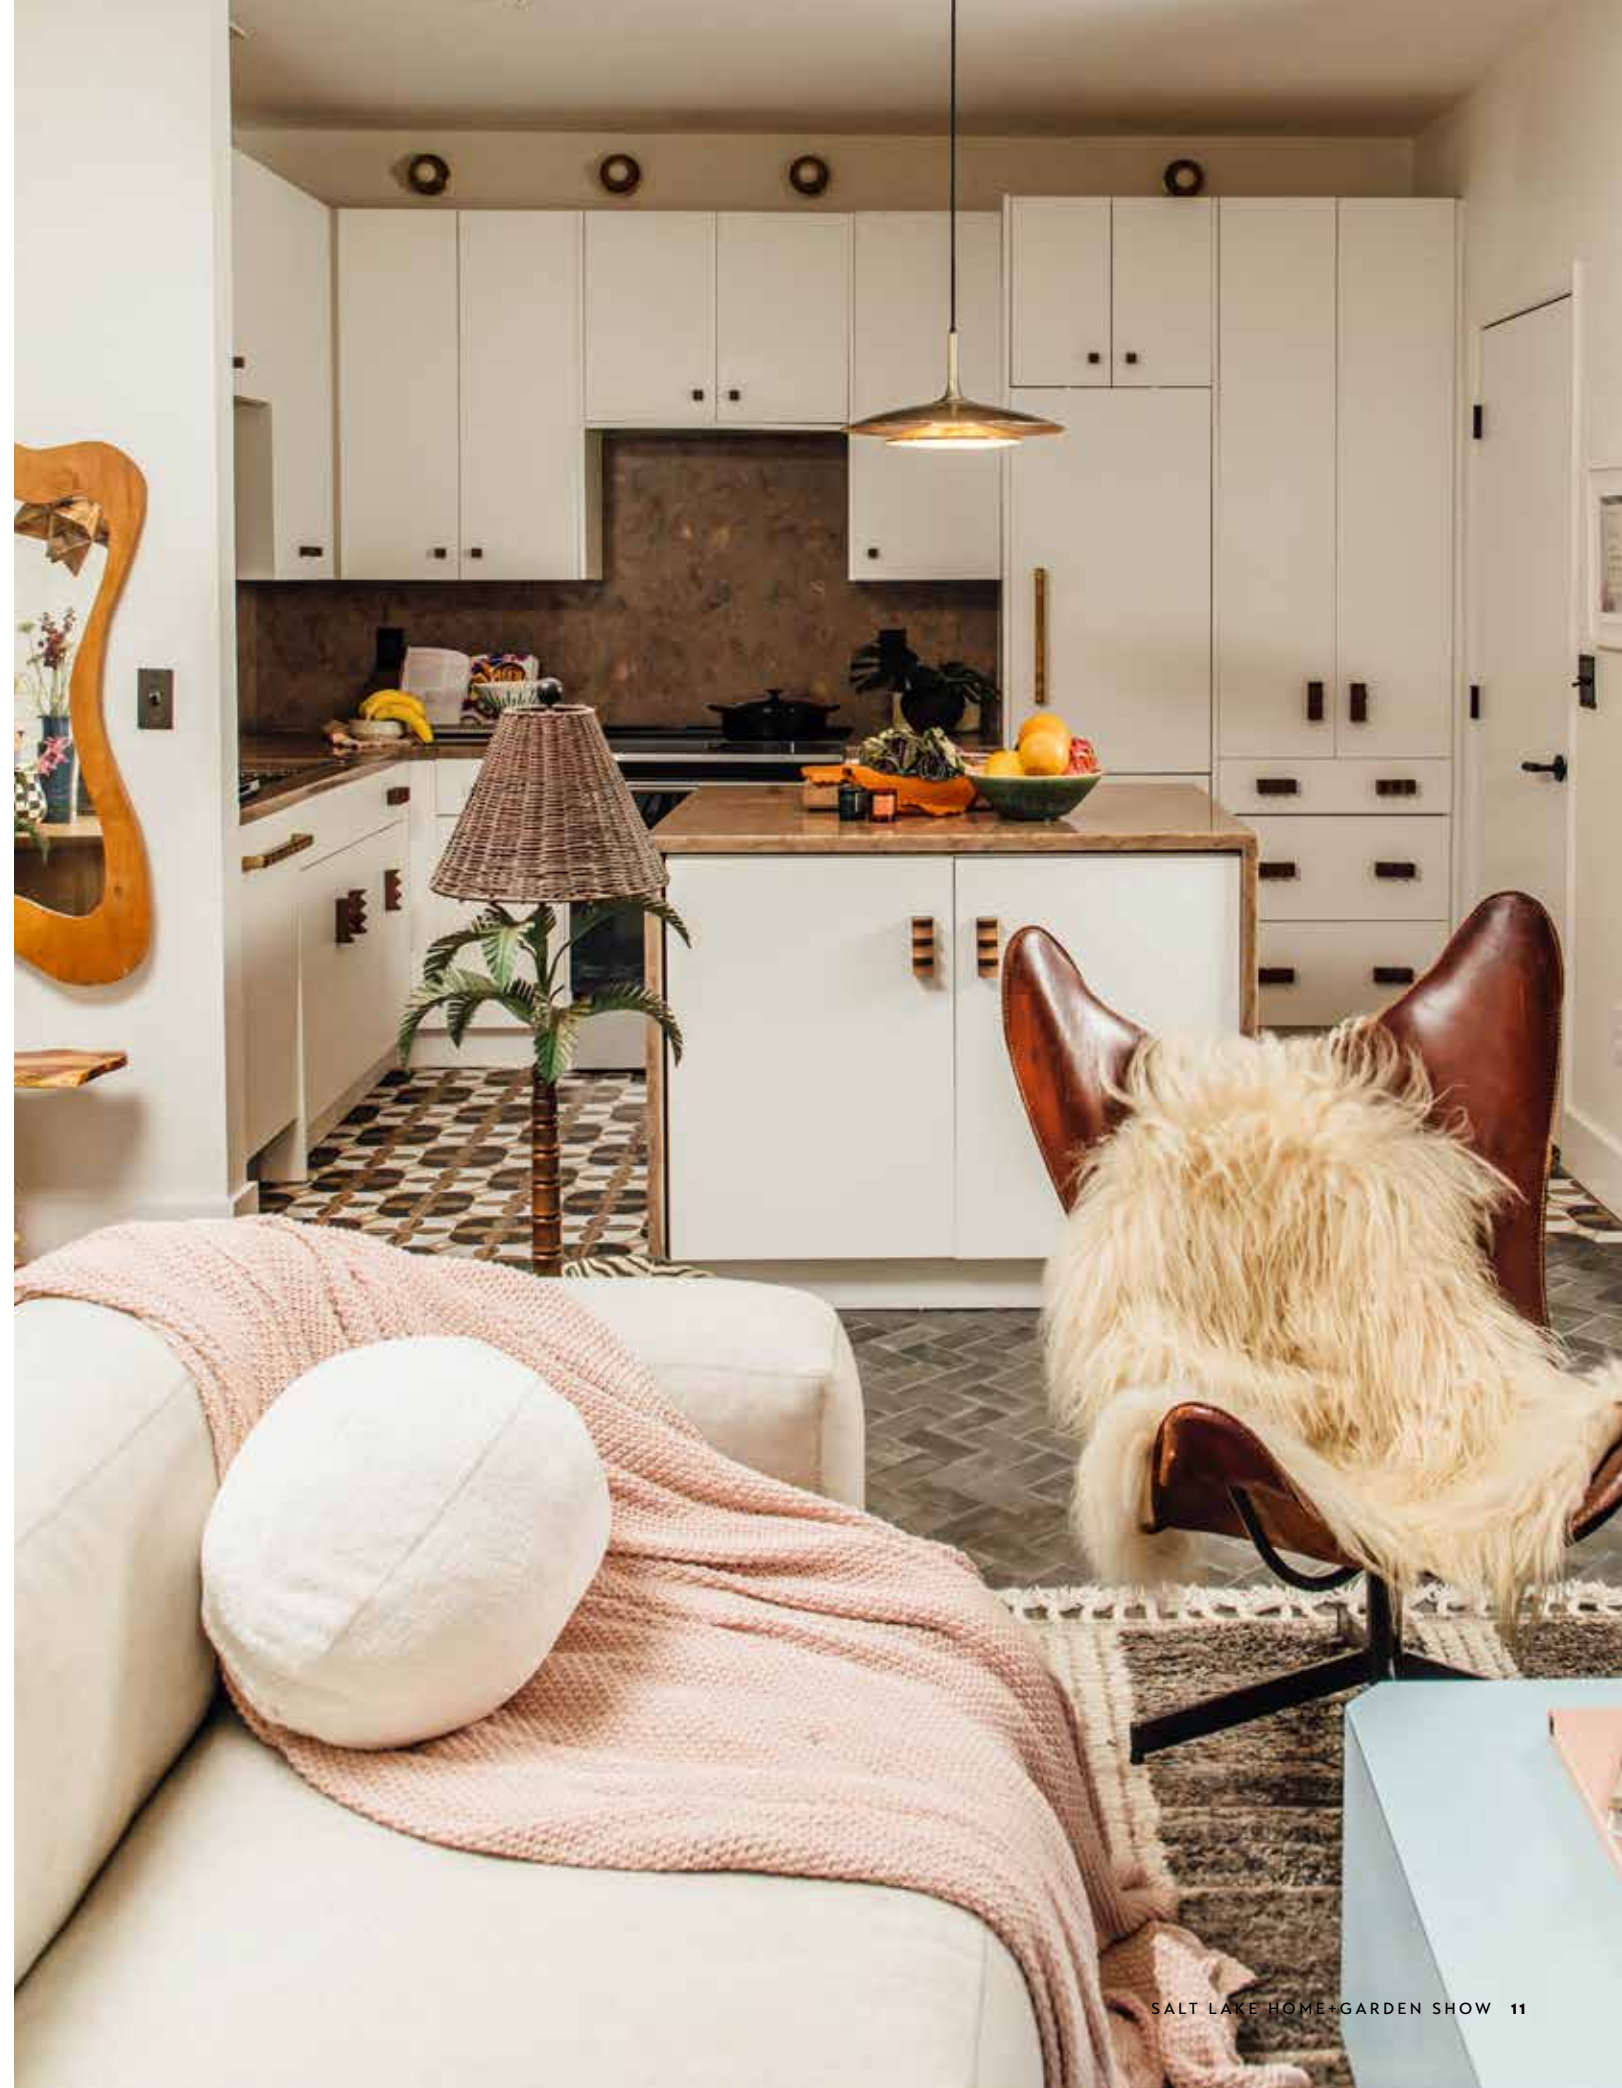

Q: Are you a fan of the Marie Kondo method? What's your best organization hack?

Virginia: I am a fan of the Marie Kondo method because the more items people let go of and donate to the thrift store, the more for me to find.

When she's not thrifting or designing, Chamlee stays busy with her Substack newsletter, What's Left, where she shares city shopping guides, highlights her latest thrifted finds, and interviews other experts in the world of design.

"Thrifting is about discovery," she says. "Every item has a story, and part of the fun is imagining where it's been and how it fits into your life."

Don't miss the opportunity to see Virginia Chamlee in person on the Garden Stage.

KAYLEEN MCCABE

From DIY TV Star to Skilled Trades Champion: Kayleen McCabe Shares Her Home Renovation Expertise

FOR MANY, HOME RENOVATION PROJECTS START WITH GRAND IDEAS but often stall when unexpected challenges arise. That's where Kayleen McCabe comes in. The licensed contractor and television personality first won over audiences as the host of DIY Network's Rescue Renovation, where she expertly revived abandoned home projects and turned them into stunning remodels. Now, she's bringing her wealth of knowledge and passion for skilled trades to the Salt Lake Home + Garden Show, where she'll take the stage to share renovation tips, insights, and inspiration with homeowners and DIY enthusiasts alike.

A PASSION FOR CONSTRUCTION

McCabe's journey into the world of construction wasn't a conventional one. In her early twenties, she tackled a full-scale kitchen remodel—a daunting task for any beginner. That experience not only fueled her love for remodeling but also propelled her into the national spotlight when she won the 2009 Stud Finder competition, a contest that sought out the next great home improvement expert. From there, her career skyrocketed, leading to her successful run on Rescue Renovation, where she helped homeowners complete projects they thought were beyond saving.

BEYOND TELEVISION: A MISSION TO PROMOTE THE TRADES

While McCabe's television career showcased her expertise, her true passion lies in advocating for the skilled trades. Recognizing the growing shortage of skilled workers in construction and home improvement fields, she has dedicated herself to bridging the gap. Partnering with organizations like SkillsUSA and the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC), she travels the country promoting vocational training and educating students about the rewarding opportunities in the trades.

"It's time we shift the perception of trade careers," McCabe emphasizes. "Skilled trades offer stable, fulfilling, and lucrative opportunities, yet they're often overlooked. I want to change that narrative."

HANDS-ON EXPERTISE

When she's not on the road advocating for the trades, McCabe is getting her hands dirty—literally. She continues to manage custom construction projects, from building pergolas and decks to crafting furniture and functional storage solutions. Her hands-on approach and commitment to craftsmanship have earned her widespread respect in the construction community.

Whether you're looking for expert renovation advice or simply seeking inspiration for your next home project, Kayleen McCabe's sessions at the Salt Lake Home + Garden Show are a must-attend. She'll be sharing her expertise, insider tips, and personal experiences on the Garden Stage during two exclusive presentations:

- Fri., March 7, at 5 p.m.
- Sat. March 8, at 12 p.m.

In these engaging presentations, Kayleen will recount her journey through the ups and downs of renovation projects, sharing invaluable lessons on navigating renovation challenges, the significance of skilled labor, and how to add value to any home. Whether you're a DIY enthusiast or considering a career in the trades, Kayleen's stories and insights are sure to inspire and educate.

Don't miss your chance to learn from one of the best in the industry!
