Q&A
with Christopher Knight

“Finding the balance between too little and too much is sort of a ‘Goldilocks’ zone and important to consider thoroughly.”
— CHRISTOPHER KNIGHT

CHRISTOPHER KNIGHT, BEST KNOWN AS PETER BRADY from the beloved TV series The Brady Bunch, has built a remarkable career that spans entertainment, technology and entrepreneurship. From his early days on screen to leading a successful home decor brand and co-founding a production company, Knight continues to inspire with his creativity and versatility. In this Q&A, he shares insights on home improvement and design.

Q: Best home purchase for under $100?

A: Best home purchase for under $100 is a video doorbell like RING. It is a simple, cost-effective way to boost your sense of security — from knowing who’s entering and leaving your home to seeing packages arrive and, in some cases, disappear, from your porch, to avoiding unwanted solicitations. Video doorbells are an easy way to improve your awareness of your surroundings.

Q: What’s one outdoor tip for a big impact on landscaping or curb appeal?

A: I would have to say lighting. Good exterior lighting can add a magical quality to a home. It infuses your home with drama and architectural depth. It can be cleverly used to emphasize your home’s architectural strengths while drawing attention away from any shortcomings.

Q: What’s your next home project?

A: My next home project is an office conversion, taking my office from a traditional “office” workspace to a multifunctioning office/recording studio. I’m working on equipping the space with proper soundproofing and a ceiling grid for lights, greenscreen and appropriate backdrops for at-home video production. If the pandemic has taught me anything, it has illuminated the ability we all now have to self-produce content at home effectively and affordably.

Q: Which HGTV/DIY Network star would you most like to work with and why?

A: My favorite HGTV stars are all those who worked on A Very Brady Renovation — The Property Brothers (Drew and Jonathan Scott), Jasmine Roth, Leanne & Steve Ford, mother/daughter dynamic duo Karen & Mina Starsiak and Lara Spencer. Everyone is not only creative and industrious but they’re all incredible people. They were an inspiration to work with and fun to get to know personally.

Q: When you design a room, what is the most important interior design advice you give?

A: Less is more. Be mindful of scale! Take measurements and give at least four feet of space around furniture that serves as a traffic area. I’ve learned that not all people are able to think in an imagined 3-dimensional space. As a result, some have a hard time anticipating the fit and flow of a room. Finding the balance between too little and too much is sort of a “Goldilocks” zone and important to consider thoroughly.

Q: What is one project you tell people NOT to do as DIY?

A: Removing popcorn ceiling or doing your own hazardous material remediation.

Christopher Knight of The Brady Bunch Appearance sponsored by Home Genius Exteriors

Forever known as a “Brady,” Christopher Knight rose to fame as Peter Brady on the iconic television series The Brady Bunch. Though the role made him a cultural touchstone, Knight spent much of his early adulthood pursuing interests beyond entertainment. Drawn to science and technology, he immersed himself in the early personal computer industry, building a successful 25-year career as a computer industry executive during the tech boom.

At a career crossroads, Knight returned to entertainment with a goal of blending entrepreneurship and creativity. That vision led to the launch of Christopher Knight Home, a home decor brand that quickly became one of the most recognizable online furnishings brands, reaching millions of homes worldwide and earning international media attention.

Despite success beyond show-biz, Knight’s Brady legacy remained ever-present. In the early 2000s, he re-established himself as an actor, host and spokesperson, appearing on shows such as That ’70s Show, Blue Collar TV and Dragging the Classics, and hosting the syndicated game show Trivial Pursuit – America Plays. In 2019, he reunited with his Brady castmates for HGTV’s record-breaking A Very Brady Renovation, followed by a surprise appearance on FOX’s The Masked Singer in 2022. He also co-hosts The Real Brady Bros podcast with Barry Williams.

In 2019, Knight cofounded production company Former Prodigy, debuting with the award-winning documentary Truelove: The Film and later co-producing the animated feature The Inventor. With new projects in development, Knight continues to evolve creatively, embracing whatever comes next.

He will be appearing on stage Friday, March 20 at 4 p.m. and Saturday, March 21 at noon.

Christopher Knight will be appearing on the Main Stage Friday, March 20 at 4 p.m. and Saturday, March 21 at noon.

A show favorite, Matt Fox returns as this year’s main stage emcee, where he will delight show visitors with his quick wit, home improvement knowledge and special educational presentations.
