Creating Memories with Holiday Tablescape

Whether you relax and indulge or are busy entertaining, the holidays give you the perfect chance to set your table with some festive flair. A group of local designers offers Gift + Hobby Show attendees a hearty dose of tabletop inspiration, from the simple and stylish to the elegant and elaborate. Learn more about their gorgeous displays and inspirations below!

Tammy Walker brings her expertise in decorating to help others cultivate joy-filled memories with family and friends. Her tablescapes are focused on family tradition, with lots of gingerbread and warmth with a touch of gold accents. "I love the feeling of children laughing and creating a design of their own during the holidays! The tradition of building gingerbread houses and cookie gingerbread men bring not only décor into the home but a sense of togetherness," Walker said. "Gingerbread houses on adjustable cake plates and gingerbread men come alive when they are placed together. It makes you feel the holiday spirit especially when we are sitting around a warm fire and Christmas tree taking in a sweet ginger smell. My family gathers each year during the holidays to create and share our sweet treats with each other while displaying our favorite houses on the table!"

Lifestyle blogger Abby Hake Kellermeyer is adding a bit of whimsy to her tablescapes design – with pinks, plaids and bows. "I'm inspired this season by mixing patterns and textures," she said. "Who doesn't love a little pink during the holidays?"

By using traditional patterns with a twist hopefully we can give the feel of an updated modern holiday look but still feel nostalgic."

"For me, holidays are about creating memories," said lifestyle blogger and boutique owner Jamie Markley. "Décor and the look and feel of your home during the holiday season create a backdrop for those memories and can be a reminder of past holiday memories as you pull out the decorations again." Markley's tablescapes theme for the Christmas Gift + Hobby Show is "A Pink Christmas." "For me, having three daughters and owning a women's boutique make it an easy choice for me this year to celebrate this holiday season with all things pink!"

Being intentional about creating memories that last a lifetime is Trina Hopkins's goal as she creates her tablescapes each year. This year, her tablescapes are gingerbread-themed — using muted neutral colors and metallics. "Every year I create a tablescapes to celebrate the holidays with my family," she said. "I love themes and incorporating that into my tablescapes. My boys have looked forward to these over the years, and I enjoy creating lifelong memories with them."

Cherie Lowe's 2024 Favorite Finds

It's the most wonderful time of the year! The weeks of November are filled with gathering, feasting, shopping, and planning holiday fun for our family. I'd guess your family might have similar plans on the calendar, too. And November 6-10 at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, you can achieve all of those objectives at once. That's right, it's time for the Christmas Gift and Hobby Show where you can gather with friends and family, feast on delicious snacks, do a little shopping, and even have holiday fun.

And if it's time for the Christmas Gift and Hobby Show, that also means it's time for my Favorite Things Picks - those vendors I think you should check out for the cute, the practical, and the festive this holiday season. Here are my can't miss stops for this year's show!

Sports and Collecti-Balls (Booth #379):

We spiked a FEVER in Indiana this year. As Caitlin Clark hit the floor, fans packed the stands to see the entire Indiana Fever raise the stakes for the WNBA. With thrilling passes, three point shots, and good old Indiana styled fundamental basketball, I don't think women's sports will ever be the same. And it was amazing to be a part of that history. This Christmas, celebrate the accomplishments of an amazing season and a moment in sports history with a 12x30 Premium Pennant featuring Caitlin Clark and the Indiana Fever. Fans of all ages will love the low price of $10!

2 Crafty Girls (Booth #C5): My children have a slight concern for my love of gnomes. I have a feeling that they think one day I'll start talking to all of my little cute, bearded friends. That's why I definitely want to check out the hand crafted Bee Gnomes from Too Crafty Girls. Each 10-12 inch gnome is an original, made with special care. With a price of $25, they're perfect for a hostess gift or gift exchange, too.

Claire's Silverwear (Booth #558):

Don't worry, that's not a typo. Claire's Silverwear features vintage plated and sterling flatware that's been reimagined and reshaped as jewelry and other creative art.

I love those who make old things new and take what already exists, breathing new existence into it. From bracelets to custom Christmas ornaments, from hair accessories to lamps, you'll find items ranging in price from $10-200. And even better, Claire's Silverwear can take the silverware you have and turn it into custom keepsakes. Wouldn't that be a lovely family heirloom this holiday season to pass along? Imagine turning the family flatware sitting in a closet into a special treasure your loved ones will cherish!

Hawaiian Moon (Booth #215): All the sensitive skin girllies, rejoice. Hawaiian Moon features Organic Aloe Skin Cream certain to send your dry skin packing this holiday season. Free of fragrances, dyes, parabens, harsh chemicals, mineral oils, and even of petroleum, this more natural approach to beauty taps into the earth's resources to create a cream that absorbs into skin instantly, reaching seven layers deep to replenish your cells. You'll find a range of options from $40-120 to give the gift of health and beauty this year!

Happy Little Pineapple (Booth #433): For the foodie on your list, the Happy Little Pineapple offers edible gifts ranging from $3 to $45. Choose from a variety of delicious infused Olive Oils. You may even want to pick up a bread dipping pack from someone special on your Christmas list this year that includes a 5 oz. bottle of oil, spices, and even a bread dipping bowl, all wrapped up and ready to give. Family, friends, teachers, co-workers, neighbors and more will love this unique gift idea.

Recycled Military Bags (Booth #668): Here's another chance to give a gift that encourages sustainability. I can't say enough about how cute the bags are from Recycled Military Bags. While these would be perfect for a servicewoman or military wife, I think there are lovely styles of wristlets, weekend bags, purses, backpacks, and more for anyone. From $12-98, you're sure to find the style and the price to fit your budget while also supporting the Gary Sinise Foundation with your purchase. I love it when a gift does more than just bless the recipient!

It was hard to choose only six favorites this year! The Christmas Gift and Hobby Show has so much to offer this year - from beauty to crafts to holiday cheer, from delicious foods to practical items. You won't be disappointed. I dare you not to create a list of favorite things of your own.
