EMBRACE THE NEW YEAR WITH FRESH IDEAS and boundless inspiration at the 2024 Salt Lake Home Show! Our team is thrilled to unveil an extraordinary lineup of national celebrity guests, local industry experts, and the latest trends in home design and construction.

This year, the Salt Lake Home Show welcomes national, talented guests from Magnolia Network and HGTV. Designer and national TV host, Tamara Day, seeks to make the aspirational attainable for her clients and fans of her renovation projects. Tamara's show Bargain Mansions, which originated on DIY, spent two seasons on HGTV, and now has found its home at Magnolia Network, is going into its fourth season. Her style, coined "Laid Back Luxe," is synonymous with blending glamour, comfort, and family into the spaces she designs – something she personally prioritizes. You can learn how to make your home into a "mansion" when you see her LIVE on the design stage on Friday and Saturday.

In addition to Tamara Day, we're also pleased that Patric Richardson, host of HGTV's The Laundry Guy will make his debut in Utah at this year's show. Patric started sharing his expertise at his much talked about, and often sold out, Laundry Camps, teaching people new and better ways to care for all of their apparel and home textiles. These camps sparked a revolution, prompting a book, Laundry Love, now in its fourth printing and a television show, The Laundry Guy on HGTV and Discovery+. Patric has been featured in both local and national media including Live with Kelly and Ryan, the Washington Post, Better Homes and Gardens, Good Morning LA, the Wall Street Journal, NBC Nightly News, The New York Times, Martha Stewart Living, and internationally with the BBC and The Globe. Save your questions and check out his laundry tips when he appears LIVE on the design stage Friday and Saturday.

But that's not all there is to see! In addition to our celebrity guests, you can also see and learn from local designers and home renovation experts all weekend. We encourage you to browse the hundreds of vendor booths throughout the weekend to gather inspiration for your next home project.

We extend our sincere thanks for allowing the Salt Lake Home Show team to assist with your home renovations. Our commitment to being your premier source for top-notch home improvement, design, and landscaping products and services remains steadfast. Join the conversation on Facebook, as your thoughts are of utmost importance to us!

See you at the Salt Lake Home Show,

TAMARA DAY

From Bargain Mansions to Laid Back Luxe Living

IN THE WORLD OF HOME RENOVATION AND DESIGN, Tamara Day stands out not only for her exceptional talent but also for her commitment to making the aspirational attainable. As the host and designer of the hit series Bargain Mansions, Tamara has been transforming neglected homes in Kansas City into stunning spaces that seamlessly blend glamour, comfort, and family. The show, which originated on DIY, enjoyed two successful seasons on HGTV before finding its home at Magnolia Network, gearing up for its fourth season.

Tamara's distinctive style, coined "Laid Back Luxe," has become synonymous with her ability to infuse spaces with sophistication while maintaining an approachable and family-friendly atmosphere. This is a reflection of her personal priorities as a busy mother of four who believes that homes should be both beautiful and low maintenance in a world that is already stressful enough.

Beyond the lights and cameras, Tamara is deeply committed to her family, her design business, and her retail store, Growing Days, located in Kansas City. Her passion for creating spaces that celebrate the essence of family life is evident not just in her TV projects but also in her own home.

THE LAUNDRY GUY

From Toy Washing Machine to Laundry Revolution:
The Extraordinary Journey of Patric Richardson

IN THE WORLD OF LAUNDRY aficionados, Patric Richardson is a trailblazer whose passion for clothes and their care was ignited at a tender age. Long before his TV show and bestselling book, Richardson's love for laundry began when Santa delivered a toy washing machine to his three-year-old self.

As he grew, so did his affinity for clothing and their meticulous care. Voted best dressed in 8th grade and high school, Richardson's trajectory was clear. He pursued Merchandising Apparel and Textiles at the University of Kentucky, laying the foundation for an illustrious career in luxury fashion at McAlpins, Neiman Marcus, and Nordstrom. His time in these iconic stores imparted two crucial lessons – the joy of incredible clothes and the understanding that all garments, regardless of their price tag, can be cared for at home.

In 2013, Richardson took a significant step forward, opening his designer vintage store, Mona Williams. The store featured a curated collection of fine laundry products, drawing the attention of the Minneapolis/St. Paul community. A pivotal moment occurred when the Star Tribune showcased Richardson and his love for laundering everything from cashmere sweaters to tailored suits at home. This unexpected publicity redirected his path into the captivating world of laundry and clothing care.

The next chapter of Richardson's journey unfolded with the introduction of his highly sought-after Laundry Camps. These camps, often sold out, became a platform for teaching people innovative and effective ways to care for their apparel and home textiles. The success of the camps sparked a revolution, leading to the publication of his book "Laundry Love," now in its fourth printing, and the launch of his television show, "The Laundry Guy" on HGTV and Discovery+.

Richardson's expertise has not gone unnoticed, garnering recognition from local and national media, including appearances on "Live with Kelly and Ryan," the Washington Post, Better Homes and Gardens, and NBC Nightly News with Lester Holt. His influence extends globally, with features in international outlets such as the BBC and The Globe and Mail.

We had the opportunity to delve into Richardson's thoughts and insights through a Q&A session. Here's what he had to say:

Home Gadget Every Homeowner Should Have:

"I couldn't do laundry without a horsehair brush. They get softer when wet, making them safe for cashmere and silk, yet strong enough to tackle serious stains."

Trickiest Stain to Get Out:

"Lipstick or Barbeque...They are both oily and complex, and in both cases, the higher the quality, the harder to remove!"

Most Underrated Cleaning Product:

"VINEGAR! I love it for so many things, it is perfect to remove oily stains in the laundry and then clean the laundry room!"

Favorite Part of Doing Laundry:

"I love the whole process for two reasons, first, it makes whoever you are doing laundry for (including yourself) happy; second, it gives me such a sense of satisfaction."

Best Home Purchase Under $100:

"A steamer, but an all-purpose one, you can use it to clean the house, and it will have an adapter to steam clothes. So all-purpose."

From the humble beginnings of a toy washing machine to revolutionizing laundry routines worldwide, Patric Richardson has truly transformed the way we think about caring for our clothes.

See Patric LIVE on the Design Stage on Friday, Jan. 5 at 5 p.m. and Saturday, Jan. 6 at 3 p.m.
