The 51st Annual Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show Adds New Features, Exhibitors, Seminars and Thousands Of New Items To Buy in 2026!

Portland, OR – It's called "The Big One"! The Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show presented by Leupold returns to the Portland Expo Center, February 11-15, 2026. This year's show may be the biggest ever with more than 325,000 square feet of display space and exhibitors! The nation's leading public lands advocate and hunter Randy Newberg is back and we're thrilled! Randy will be hosting daily seminars to answer your questions. Bring the kids to the Les Schwab Kid's Free Trout Pond! Everything's provided! Everyone wins with Toyota's Fistful of Cheaters promotion. Toyota's also sponsors outdoor survival expert Brett Stoffel who will be giving daily seminars in the Green Theater and is also available to answer your questions in the Toyota booth. Bring the kids to the Les Schwab Kid's Free Trout Pond...everything's provided! Check out the all-new Sportsmen's Tech Center with top experts sharing their expertise on a range of technology for fishing and hunting. Stop by the Addicted Fish Fighting Experience and test your fish fighting and landing skills...for free! The Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife has a new Passport Promotion where you win just by getting your passport stamped --- it's free too! We've added an Off-Road Adventure Pavilion that showcases the best and brightest in off-road vehicles and accessories. The Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Seminar Series, the best in North America has been completely revamped with new topics and speakers for 2026...don't miss it. And these are just a few of the dozens of highlights for this year's show!
